

Confluence Art Show Rules & Guidelines (Note: New Hanging Fee)

Art show co-directors Joan Fisher and Heidi Pilewski

1. Only the artist's original work or signed-and-numbered limited edition art can be entered into the show. Confluence has no Print Shop. (Sorry)
2. All art must have a science fiction, fantasy or horror theme.
3. While we have a very small area for Mature Art, we are most suited to art that can be viewed by all ages.
4. All art must be matted or mounted in a way suitable for hanging to ensure that the artwork is undamaged during display. If art is 3-dimensional, please state whether it is permissible to touch.
5. There is a $.25/piece fee for For Sale artwork. If you do not include a per piece fee with your mailed in art, the fee will be deducted from your sales.
6. The art show will collect a 10% commission on the sale of any art. There will be a $2.00 per-piece hanging fee on Not For Sale artwork, due at the time of hanging.
7. Agenting is permitted. All agents must have a letter of permission from the artist to display the art in question at Confluence. A copy of this letter will be retained by the art show, and the payment for the art sold will be sent directly to the artist, not the agent.
8. Any art with two or more bids will go to auction on Sunday. All art with only one bid at the close of show Sunday is sold to that bidder.
9. During the open hours of the show, any work that has no bid (and is not listed as "Not For Sale") may be purchased for the quick sale price. The art show staff should be consulted for quick sale purchases.
Any art that is not paid for and picked-up by 4 pm on Sunday will be sent back to the artist.
10. Mail-in art is permitted and welcome. All artists who wish to mail art to the Confluence show must include a return address and postage.
